

DNC P&R at Yellowstone

Greening of Yellowstone

(& Montana Tourism)

2008 Montana Governor's Conference on Tourism & Recreation
April 17-18, 2008

One company.
One brand.
One Vision.

Introduction

Deb Friedel

Manager of Environmental, Interpretive, and Risk/Safety Programs at Yellowstone

One company.
One brand.
One Vision.

Background Information

DNC P&R acquired the retail concessions contract at Yellowstone National Park in 2003.

One company.
One brand.
One Vision.

Environmental Stewardship

GreenPath, our Environmental Management System is registered to ISO 14001 Standards.

One company.
One brand.
One Vision.

DNC
Delaware North Companies

Communication and Education

Associates, Clients, Vendors, Guests, Guests, Business Partners & Others

Partnerships

- Yellowstone National Park Service
- Regulatory Agencies (MT & WY Dept. of Environmental Quality, Fish Wildlife & Parks)
- Other Concessioners in Yellowstone National Park
- Yellowstone Association
- Yellowstone Business Partnership
- Yellowstone Park Foundation
- Corporation for the Northern Rockies
- Museum of the Rockies
- Big Brothers & Big Sisters
- Others

One company.
One brand.
One Vision.

DNCE
Delaware North Companies

Environmental Initiative Responsible Purchasing of Packing Materials

Eliminated the purchase of bubble wrap.

Use the Geami System. Geämi means "friend of the earth". This system uses Kraft paper, a renewable resource – which is easily recyclable and is biodegradable.

One company.
One brand.
One Vision.

Environmental Initiative

Responsible Purchasing of Dishware & Cutlery

Converted to 100% biodegradable dishware and cutlery in our food and beverage areas.

One company.
One brand.
One Vision.

Environmental Initiative

Waste Management - Public Recycling

Purchase and placement of seven bear proof bins for public recycling to capture:

- Plastic
- Aluminum
- Glass

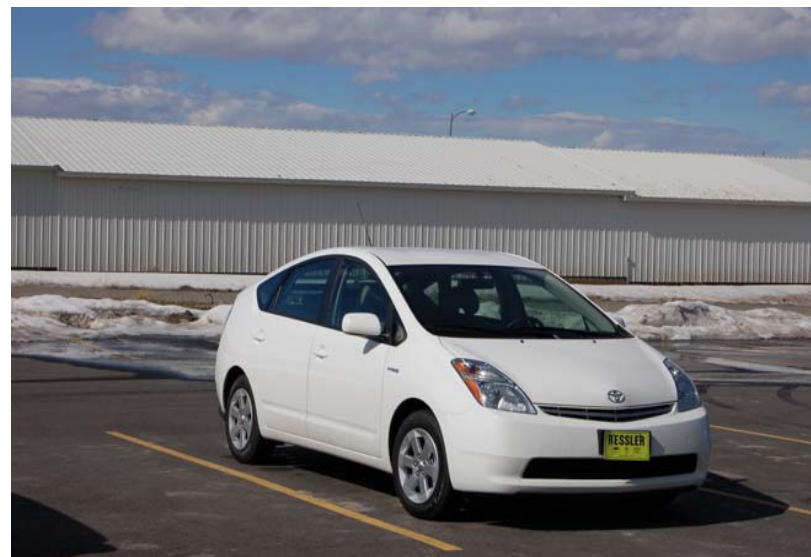

One company.
One brand.
One Vision.

Environmental Initiative Energy Conservation - Transportation

Incorporated alternative fueled technology
into our fleet of vehicles.

One company.
One brand.
One Vision.

DNC
Delaware North Companies

Environmental Initiative

Water Conservation – Low Flow Showerheads

Installed low flow showerheads in our dormitories.
These showerheads flow at 2.5 gallons per minute!

One company.
One brand.
One Vision.

Conclusion

As environmental stewards, DNC P&R at Yellowstone strives for continual improvement in protecting natural, cultural, historical resources in Yellowstone National Park and the Greater Yellowstone region.

